Begins Campaign to Raise $100,000 to Invest in Bonds.

So keen is the interest taken by of the more than 100 persons mpaign organization for the parish, that there was lively for the "prospects" at the eeting last night, in the crystal members of the campaign or zation were rivalrous to get the eards of friends from whom they ex-pected to get large contributions. No member of the working organization a allowed to solicit from any person is allowed to solicit from any person unless they have a card for that particular individual.

Speeches for the liberty loan will be features of the banquet Thursday night, formally opening the campaign. Four speakers prominently identified with political, social and business life in the Capital will make appeals in behalf of liberty bond sales.

lunday, more than a score of per-ons offered subscriptions for liberty onds yesterday at the campaign eadquarters in the Ebbitt Hotel, but none of these will be accepted until the collectors start out on the actual

The two large silver loving cups which are to be awarded to the two teams bringing in the largest amount during the ten-day drive have been received and will beplaced on exhibition tomorrow in an F street window.

ecting of the workers last night at Ebbitt was very gratifying to Rt. e. Ebbitt was very gratifying to Rt. ev. Mgr. Thomas F. Lee, pastor of e parish, who told the gathering that he feels the success of the cam-paign is already assured. Mgr. Lee said to the workers that govern-ment officials in charge of the Liberty oan Campaign are delighted with the drive in Washington by the mem-lers of St. Matthews' parish and that they will furnish speakers for each evening during the progress of the will induce many to buy a bond who otherwise would not do so. While assisting our church we will ime than to furnish sufficient funds with which the officials of the gov. ernment will provide the munitions for our boys over there to delend human liberty. The money that we collect will help to send food to our fighters in Europe. It will help to build the ships in which the muni-tions and food are sent overseas. "With the Liberty Bonds, what nore noble purpose could there be than to rear a great church, beau-tifully decorated, as a monument to the heroic patriotism of our young men who are offering their all in the trenches. I can safely promise you that St. Matthew's will be one of the most beautiful church edifices in the world. The famous Flemish cathedrals, which were world-famed for their beauty of architec-ture and artistic adornment, have been destroyed and ravaged during the war so that we are performing a great work for posterity in up-building here in the Capital City of this nation a temple of worship which will preserve for posterity replicas of the most beautifully dec orated church architecture that has come down through the ages."

PICTURES WILL SHOW BLIND SOLDIER'S AID

Alexandria, Va., April 1.—George E.

Warfield, chairman of the local fuel board, today received a telegram from State Administrator Byrd requesting that receipts be given for all of the anthracite coal received by dealers here during the past three years to April 1 of each year. He also is advised that shippers notify him of the estimated supply needed by them during the coming winter.

All persons are requested to secure their supply of coal for the coming winter now, and for the present only about two-thirds of the amount needs that before the passage of another month all persons who can will order their coal, owing to the experience they had last winter during the coal shortage.

Miss Anna M. Gorman, daughter of City Tax Collector P. F. Gorman, died at 10 o'clock this morning at the residence of her father, 224 South Lee street. In addition to her father she is survivied by two sisters, and five brothers as follows: Miss Mary J. Gorman, Mrs. J. Reece Ca

The Alexandria police departmen today put into operation the pre-vailing time schedule for the men going off and on duty.

PATRIOTS RETURN BIG OUANTITIES OF FLOUR

A substantial answer to the appea of the Food Administration agains of the Food Administration against hoarding has been received from forty-two counties in Arkansas, where 2,511,500 pounds of flour has been returned to dealers by families which had more than the "patriotic portion." Sebastian County alone returned 2,350 barrels.

The merchants who received the returned four are said to be conventionary and the processing the proc some instances were swamped with the great quantities being returned. This concerted action on the part of consumers in Arkansas was based on the growing need for wheat in Europe, in response to an appeal from the Food Administration declaring that city people having more than twenty-four rounds or country peo-ple having more than forty-eight ounds of wheat flour would be un-patriotic and would hinder America's prosecution of the war.
